

ALICE SPRINGS CYCLING CLUB VOLUNTEER SUPPORT POLICY

Context

The ASCC relies heavily on the contribution of volunteers. Key roles undertaken by volunteers include:

- Membership of the Management Committee, undertaking specific management roles, and representing the ASCC on various forums
- Membership of Sub-Committees : currently -
 - Social
 - Road
 - Track
 - Assets & Facilities
- Undertaking actions outlined in the Operational Plan
- Coaching and supporting juniors and new riders
- Maintenance of the velodrome
- Assistance at races and events, from Race Directors to track markers, drivers, timekeepers, cooks, etc
- Other miscellaneous jobs, such as newsletter editor, organising social rides and other club get-togethers, and approaching sponsors

It is important that the Club acknowledges its volunteers and if possible gives a small reward as thanks for the work they do. This policy sets the rewards and reimbursements that are considered appropriate.

Reimbursement of costs

Volunteers can be provided with reimbursement of direct costs IF organised and agreed to in advance by the Race Director or Executive of the ASCC. Costs include:

- Fuel – 30c per kilometre
- Free meals (eg lunch voucher provided)

Other forms of acknowledgement

- Organisation of major events such as Kings Canyon Cruise, Barkly Challenge – free entry and meals
- Consistent assistance at races, events, or other tasks by non-riders – annual Social Club membership (as determined by the ASCC Management Committee)
- Other special contributions as determined by the Management Committee
- ASCC to pay for/contribute to the cost of St John Ambulance courses undertaken by volunteers who contribute to the Club
- ASCC to pay for/contribute towards costs of coaching courses
